Farmingville, NY - On January 30, Supervisor Ed Romaine visited the Suffolk County offices of Social Services in Ronkonkoma to honor Commissioner Greg Blass who is retiring after 34 years of service. He has been Commissioner of the department since 2009. The Supervisor presented Mr. Blass with a proclamation declaring January 30th as Greg Blass Day in the Town of Brookhaven.

"Greg has been a valued public servant for 34 years," said Supervisor Romaine, "and during his term as Commissioner, he proved to be a superb leader who gave his all for the people of Suffolk County. I am proud to call Greg a friend and wish him the very best as he gets ready to enjoy a well deserved retirement."
